

$100 REWARD.—Ran away from the estate of Walter Bowie, deceased, on the 26th instant, negro lad SOLOMON, calling himself Solomon Sprigg, aged about 17 years. He is five feet eight or nine inches high, dark brown complexion, very large and thick lips, which protrude to a point in the centre when closed; his speech is thick, and his face expresses the stare of astonishment when he is spoken to. His clothing was that usual for field hands.

Twenty-five dollars will be paid if he is taken in this county; $100 will be paid if taken elsewhere, and delivered in some safe jail, so that I get him again.

WALTER W. W. BOWIE,

Good Luck Post-office, Prince George's county, Md.

July 30—2awlf